3 LINES | DAILY OR SUNDAY { $2.01

Weather Indications: Fair, Warmer.

WILL GET IT FOR YOU QUICKLY. SITUATION WORDS! ADVTS. CENTS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1894.

PRICE ONE CENT.

SITUATIONS QUICKLY SECURED BY THOSE WHO THE WORLD

2 O'CLOCK.

BOUGHT BY GOULDS,

George and Howard Purchase the Yacht Vigilant for $25,000.

They Will Race the Speedy Cup Winner This Season.

James Gordon Bennett Withdrey His Offer to Buy.

Peerless Vigilant, conqueror of the British yacht Valkyrie, and the invincible steel fiver which won the America's be taken from these waters this year George J. Gould and his brother, How ard, have purchased the noble white next season for all she is worth. The Gould boys paid $25,000 for Vigilant, and the syndicate, composed of Commodore E. D. Morgan, C. Oliver Iselin, Cornelius Vanderbilt, August Helmont and others, who invested $125. 000 in the yacht last year, were pleased to dispose of the Vigilant at that figure Yachtsmen in these waters were fearful that Vigilant would be taken to foreign waters to compete for greater or and glory next Summer. Indeed, it was almost a certainty that James Gordon Bennett had bought her.

for some time. He approached August Delmont, treasurer of the syndicate which owns the boat, some weeks ago with an offer to buy. Then Mr. Bennett came upon the scene as a prospective purchaser and the Gould offer was lost sight of temporarily.

But word came that the Prince and Mr. Bennett had given up the notion of a contest, and the syndicate at once looked to the Gould offer. Yesterday they accepted the $25,000 bid made by George Gould. To-day the latter confirmed the story and sent out this statement to the reporter:

"The Vigilant has been bought by my brother Howard and myself for $25,000. We have made no plans for her as yet. Of course we will race her if we get an opportunity."

The Goulds need have no fear as to there being a lack of opportunity to opportunity."

The Goulds need have no fear as to be the being a lack of opportunity to be Vigilant the coming season. In the coming season, the saide of the being a lack of Jubilee, will saide. Gen. Paine, of Jubilee, will cloome the chance to again pit his keel boat from Boston against Vigilat. ant.
The General didn't say much last year When, through a series of accidents, he was thrown out of two races. The Bosion contingent felt that barring accilents and flukes Jubilee had a good chance for first place in the trial races.
This year ought to satisfy Gen. Paine

This year ought to satisfy Gen. Paine just how speedy Vigilant is.

The retention of Vigilant on this side of the Atlantic means a lively season for yashting all through the East. George Gould is a member of the New York Yacht Club and owns the big schooner Hildegarde, formerly the Prince of Wales's property. He also owns the big steam yacht Atalanta.

SAYS CORNELL KISSED HER. Mrs. Lillie Pearsall, a Young Bride Brings Suit.

FAR ROCKAWAY, L. I., April 19.-Kenny Cornell, a young nurseryman of Inwood, L. I., is the defendant in Far Rockaway court, charged with embracing and kissing Mrs. Lillie Pearsall, a pretty bride of six months. without her consent. Cornell was be-fore Justice Emith yesterday and pleaded to the charge, and said in de-fense that the Pearsalls were trying to blackmall him.

biackmall him.

He was paroled until next Monday, when the case will be thoroughly examined into.

Mrs. Pearsall says that several days ago, while in company with Mrs. Henry Klernan, she was met on the road near Inwood by Cornell, who hugged and kissed her despite her struggles. She told her husband, and then the accusations followed.

INJURED BY ROPE-SKIPPING.

Doctors Fear that Henriette Pur cell Cannot Recover.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., April 19.-The physicians of Mount Vernon Hospital fear that Henriette Purcell, aged twelve years, who lives with her parents at Mount Vernon, may die from parents at Mount Vernon, may die from the effects of skipping a rope 100 times.

The doctors think the violent effort knotted one of the Intestines.
The girl had been jumping the rope with other children for some time last Monday, when they determined to try to see who could do it longest. Henriette then jumped 100 times before she stopped. The next day she complained of being ill. She complained of violent pains in the abdomen, and grew steadily worse until Dr. Knapp decided an operation was necessary. The operation of laparotomy was then performed, but it is feared that the girl cannot recover.

CHILD-MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Farmer Hanged His Two Children Before Killing Himself.

(By Associated Press.)
GLENVILLE, W. Va., April 19.—Lloyd Rodabaugh, a prosperous farmer living on Yellow Creek, Calhoun County hanged his two children, aged three and five years respectively, and then Look his own life.

His wife was absent during the day and en her return found the bodies benging from the ratters of the bodies.

Great Northern Men at Minne- Big Crowd of Cranks Depart to Hass & Assman's Jane Street Esapelis Called Off.

for the Court's Mandate.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 19.-The order for the Great Northern men to strike first read for 7 o'clock in the morning. but was later changed to 1 o'clock this

This means that the entire system will be tied up, unless the restraining order a small army of cranks and rooters of of the courts can get it running at

BUTTE, Mon., April 19.-Organizer Hogan states that to-morrow the strike will be inaugurated on the Consolidated lines in Washington State, under the Great Northern until it went into the hands of a receiver a short time ago, and it practically controls the entire railroad system of the State.

A special to The Daily Miner, from Glasgow, Mont., announces the shooting by one of the strikers, detailed by the A. R. U., to guard the Company's property of a man attempting to plunder freight cars.

MORE SHOOTING IN DETROIT.

Wounded Last Night and Fur ther Trouble Feared.

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, Mich., April 19.—Another shooting affair growing out of the riot took place last evening in the rear of the Municipal Court building. A group of Poles had congregated and Deputy-Indeed, it was almost a certainty that James Gordon Bennett had bought her. Mr. Bennett had offered $30,000 for Vigilant, but it was contingent upon his ability to satisfactorily arrange a series of rages with the Prince of Wales's Britannia. The sale to the Gould brothers is conclusive evidence that Mr. Bennett and the Prince were unable to agree on mailing conditions.

George Gould has been after Vigilant for some time. He approached August Belmont, treasurer of the syndicate which owns the beat, some weeks ago with an offer to buy. Then Mr. Bennett came upon the scene as a prospective purchaser and the Gould offer was lost sight of temporarily.

But word came that the Prince and Mr. Bennett had given up the notion of a contest, and the syndicate at once looked to the Gould offer. Yesterday they accepted the $25,000 bid made by George Gould. To-day the latter confirmed the story and sent out this statement to the reporter:

"The Vigilant has been bought by my brother Howard and mysself for $25,000. We have made no plans for her as yet.

CAN'T AGREE ON WAGES.

Confer at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.-During the wage conference held in this city yesterday between the management of the Wabetween the management of the Wabash Railway and representatives of the engineers and firemen of the Western, Eastern and Middle Divisions of that system, the railroad officials failed to accept a proposition offered by the delegates. The latter presented a schedule which, the management says, is not greatly different from the existing scale.
The delegates were informed that the officials would be forced to insist upon the new schedule going into effect
May 1.

The delegates seem willing to accept a scale that will result in a 10 per cent.

May 1.

The delegates seem willing to accept a scale that will result in a 10 per cent. reduction on an average, but they claim by the new schedule the reduction will exceed that amount. The conference will be continued to-day. It is understood that the conductors and brakemen will also send a committee to confer on the wage question.

LESS PAY FOR TRAINMEN.

New Schedule for Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Road. (By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 19.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago Railroad anounced yesterday that its recent agreement with the engineers and firemen in its employ is annulled, and that a new schedule would be in force May 15. The men said last night that the new schedule contemplated a cut of about 10 per cent, in wrges, but as in the case of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, the chief reduction would be effected indirectly by means of a radical change in the computation of overtime.

tation of overtime.

This will involve in a minor degree the conductors and trainmen, who are not touched by any cut in wages. The grievance committees will meet in Chicago during the present week.

Rule for Coming Miners' Strike

(By Associated Press.)
COLUMBUS, O., April 18.—President McBrid of the United Mine Workers of America iles that in the strike to be begun on Apr any purpose but when companies want engines run, water handled, timbering or other kind of re-pair work done, it will be permitted, provided wages are as according to scale demanded by the

SHE WANTS A DIVORCE.

Mrs. Minnie C. Warren's Suit Is Now on Trial.

The trial of the suit of Mrs. Minnie C Warren for an absolute divorce from he husband, Lyman E. Warren, a lawyer was begun before Judge McAdam in the was begun before Judge McAdam in the Superior Court to-day.

The pair were married in Athens, Pa., Jan. 3, 1883, and lived happily together until April, 1890. Up to this time they had been boarding at 51 West Thirty-fifth street.

Mrs. Warren alleges that her husband made disparaging remarks about her to the other boarders, and when she upbraided him she alleges that he said he would make her life a heli for it.

STRIKERS STEAL A MARCH. GIANTS ARE AT BALTIMORE. CAN FACTORY BURNS.

See the Game To-Day.

The Order to Quit Timed Too Early Looks Like Bad Weather for the Over 100 Horses in Danger from First Championship Contest.

> The New York Club begins its championship race in its game with Balti- Watchman Trying to Rescue Them more to-day, and Foutz's men contest for hupremacy with the champion Bostons. The interest in the work of the local clubs is at fever heat.

> A special train left the Pennsylvania depot for Baltimore at 8 o'clock carrying destroyed by fire which broke out on the all-wool variety. Immediately after dinner in Baltimore the whole delegation, together with the New York and Baltimore teams, is to parade the central part of the city, finally ending at the tral part of the city, finally ending at the baseball grounds. The Giants, accompanied by Judge Brady and Arthur Bell, arrived in Baltimore yesterday afternoon and are pleasantly quartered at the Eutaw House.

In speaking of to-day's game, Capt. Ward said too much must not be expected of his team, as they have been snow-bound in New York, while the Orioles were getting into good form in the South. He anticipates hot work, however, for the Southerners.

At 8 o'clock this morning the weather was cloudy in Baltimore, and the general baseball public were fearful of bad weather for the opening game.

The teams will probably line up in the following manner:

New York.

permanent.

Lawyer Charles Strauss, who represented the congregation, read a lot of affidavits. Some of them showed the expensive character of the temple, which, according to the affidavits, cost 1145,000. Others were from residents of the neighborhood, claiming that the relation of their property would be decreased.

Eyests in building and conductors the neighborhood, claiming that the value of their property would be decreased.

Experts in building and conducting of stables swore that it would be impossible to build and conduct a stable from which unhealthy odors would not emanate.

Several physicians swore the building of the stable would endanger the health of residents in the neighborhood and attendants at the worship in the worship in the stable would endanger the health of residents in the neighborhood and attendants at the worship in the stable would endanger the health of the stable would be neighborhood and attendants at the worship in the stable would endanger the stable would be neighborhood and attendants at the worship in the stable would endanger the stable would be neighborhood and attendants at the worship in the stable would be neighborhood and attendants.

attractive than the temple.

He then called attention to the fact that most of the wealthy residents of this city had stables adjoining their houses. He read affidavits from physicians that the stable would not be unbeathy.

sicians that the stable would not be unheathy.

He denied that there was a desire to make money out of the residents of the neighborhood, and said a prohibitory price was named because his clients did not wish to sell.

The argument not being closed at 11 o'clock, Judge Gildersjeeve adjourned it until after the regular call of the daily calendar.

PROF. GARVIN DENOUNCED.

Campbellite Clergymen Say Hi Teachings Are Heretical. (By Associated Press.)

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., April 19. Prof. Garvin, head of the Theological hool of Butler I'niversity, and one of the principal scholars of the Christian or Campbellite Church, was bitterly de-

Numbers of prominent ministers arose and openly denounced him as a heretic, whose teachings had corrupted scores of young ministers.

The Convention unanimously adopted resolutions condemning Prof. Garvin, and signed a petition asking him to resign his position in flutter University, the denominational school.

SHERIDAN'S TRIAL.

Accused Detective's Case Come Up Again To-Day. The trial of Ward Detective George

Sheridan, of the Church street station, charged with assaulting John J. Lynch and William Mayson in the alleged poolroom in the Merchants' Hotel, at made disparaging remarks about her to the other boarders, and when she upbraided him she alleges that he said be would make her life a heli for it.

Shot His Wife and Himself.

(By Associated Prem.)

MENOMINEE, Wis., April 13.—Herman Kraeser, a German laborer, shot his wife, inflicting a very dangerous awound in the head, after which has shot himself. He will die.

volver. Normandle-by-the-Sea to Be Sold tablishment Destroyed.

the Flames.

Butted by a Goat. The five-story tin can factory of Hass & Assman, 128 to 132 Jane street, was

ing. The damage is estimated at $70,000 ery and stock.

feet wide. Louis Manns, the watchmar of the place, was sitting in the office on the ground floor, when he heard i street to investigate, he saw volumes of black smoke pouring from the windows on the second floor. He turned in an alarm from a special building call in the were seven horses. Three were go out by the police before the arrival of the firemen.

Capt. McCutcheon arrived with the first engine, and sent in a second and third alarms on seeing the extent of the fire and the neighboring buildings.

While the lines were stretched four Ward 2b.
Davis 3b.
Murphy, ss.
Burks, if.
Van Haltren, cf.
Tiernan, rf.

THAT ASTOR INJUNCTION.

The flames were quickly driven by the wind to the one-story soap factory if Doggett brothers. Lines of hose were run through the four-story furniture factory of E. Brown & Sons, on the east side of the can factory, which runs L-shaped around the back of the factory. Directly in the rear of the can factory is the four-story stable "E" of the Street-Cleaning Department.

From the roofs of these buildings a dozen streams were directed onto the burning building. From the Jane street side, the water tower poured hundreds of gallons of water upon the flames.

There were eighty-five horses in the Bireet-Cleaning Department stables. It looked for a time as though the fire would reach this building, so the animals were taken out by Night-Watchman Frank Miller, John Crimmins, Peter Kennedy and Edward Fitzsimmons.

Watchman Joseph Higgins tried to assist in the work, but he was disabled by a goat, which butted him down a flight of stairs, and he had to be taken home. The fire burned Fitzsimmons.

Watchman Joseph Higgins tried to assist in the work, but he was disabled by a goat, which butted him down a flight of stairs, and he had to be taken home. The fire burned Fitzsimmons as the work with the fire burned for a distribution of the south and east walls. On this there was a water tank containing 6,000 gallons of water upon the fames.

The fit of the can factory, which runs L-shaped around the back of the can factory is the four-story furniture factory is the four-story stable "E" of the Street-Cleaning Department.

From the voice of the superior of the street of a gallons of water upon the flames.

The fit of the can factory, which runs L-shaped "E" of the street cleaning Department as the firemen rescued twenty-eight horses that

TOOK REFUGE IN SUICIDE.

Out His Brains. of residents in the nel, borhood and attendants at the worship in the temple.

"If the detendants were of a different class," said Mr. Strauss, "I would unhesitatingly charge them with a delibit control in this community is so the light L do not wish to make such a charge. But their action in agreeing to a cacept a price, 50 per cent, more than in they paid for the property, by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property, by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property, by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property, by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property by less prominent people, would be called blackmail they paid for the property by less prominent people, would be called blackmail to make the arrest, when he was accosted yesterday by an alleged spiritual medium while spading in his garden.

Joseph H. Choate, representing the Astor estate, also read a lot of affidavits contradicting those of the other side.

Joseph H. Choate, representing the Astor estate, also read a lot of affidavits contradicting those of the other side.

We have the arrest, when he was accosted yesterday by an alleged spiritual medium while spading in his garden.

She accused him of the crime and assumed their demands in a more haughty manner."

Joseph H. Choate, representing the Astor estate, also read a lot of affidavits contradicting those of the other side.

We have the arrest, when he was accosted yesterday by an alleged spiritual medium while spading in his garden.

She accused him of the crime and assumed read their dead by the property of POMEROY, April 19.—Mrs. Elizabeth Slaughter, a widow, aged sixty-five, on March 31 was murdered on the porch of Clayton Staple, her tenant. Staple and his wife were away from home and returned at midnight. He claimed that when they reached home he fell over her dead body. Officers secured evidence sufficient to convict him, and were about to make the arrest, when he was accosted yesterday by an alleged spiritual

SUICIDE OF AN EMBEZZLER. Man Wanted in Philadelphia Shoots

Himself in Milwaukee.

(By Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, April 19.-William G. Troelsch, of this city, who com-mitted suicide by shooting himself in Juneau Park, Milwaukee, last night, i an embezzler to the extent of $1.00 He was formerly employed as a book keeper for C. A. Blessing & Co., dealers in plumbers' supplies, at 505 Mont-gomery avenue, this city, but has not been seen in Philadelphia since the middle of March. Mr. Blessing had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of Troelsch on March 18, but he had left the city, and the detec-tives had not been able to locate him.

TRIED TO KILL HERSELF.

Mrs. Sophia Reis Taken to Bellevue Violently Insane.

Mrs. Sophia Reis, thirty-eight years old, was taken from her home, 435 East Eighty-sixth street, to Believue Hospital. Eighty-sixth street, the street of the stree

WOMAN KILLS HERSELF. Mrs. Oustberg Uses a Revolver with Fatal Effect.

Mrs. Oustburg, thirty years old, of 375 West Thirty-second street, committed suicide at her home at 10.30 o'clock this morning by shooting herself with a re-

LONG BRANCH, N. J., April 19 .- Gen. Ferdi day. April 21, at 10.20 A. M. The sale is to be made to satisfy the claim of $6,000 for meats furnished by Benecks & Co.

NOW FOR THE NATIONAL GAME.

It Cannot Help Being an Improvement on the Game of Politics,

Hefmann Had Long Brooded Over | Hagerstown Swears in a Special Little Joseph Diamond Has His the Death of His Wife.

Was a Wealthy Retired Sixth Ave- Alleged Murderer Arrested as He nue Butcher.

er, fifty-nine years old, committed sulme, 805 Sixth avenue, at 4.30 this morning, by blowing his brains out with a 32-calibre revolver. Since the death of his wife, a year ago in good health. He was melancholy uncommunicative, and seemed to end his life, and when the echo of the fatal pistol-shot awakened the household this morning, they believed that it emanated from the hallway downstairs. The eldest son, George Hofmann, Jr., tried his father's bedroom door, which awakened him. He found the door bolted on the inside, and detected the smell of burnt powder. He became smell of burnt powder in front of the house. He broke in the door and found Mr. Informann lying dead in his bed. Hood was issuing from a wound in the right ear. The revolver was still ghily clutched in the right hand, the nagers having stiffened about the smell of the canal and the nagers having stiffened about the smell of the canal and the name of the canal and taken to the canal and taken the canal and taken the canal and taken t be continually brooding over the loss fingers having stiffened about the handle.

Hofmann and his family of seven children lived on the second floor of the building, which is a five-story brick structure, and was owned by the sul cide. The Excelsior Market, which he had conducted for many years, is located on the first floor. Here Mr. Hofmann had amassed a fortune.

The business for the past year has been conducted by the two eiler sons, George, ir., and William Hofmann.

Three months ago Hofmann disappeared, After his children had searched for him two weeks, he returned one day and said he had been visiting friends in Brooklyn. Hrooklyn.

Coroner Schultze was notified, and oliceman Fitzpetrick was left in marge of the body.

DR. CONWAY'S FUNERAL. Services Held in St. Mary's Church

This Morning. Funeral services over the remains of 'oroner's Physician William A. Conway were held this morning at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's Church, on the corner of Grand and Ridge streets. The Rev. Father Hughes officiated. The Interment takes place in Calvary tery.

tloral oerings were particularly andsome. The Coroners' office sent a oral chair, and the General Committee f the Fourth Assembly District sent large cross. Coroners Dobbs. Fitzpatrick. Shultze, Coroners Dobbs. Fitzpatrick. Shultze, and Shea and Coroners' Physicians Weston, Donlin and O'Hare were present, the General Committee, of which Dronway was a member, also attended a body. There were no pall-bearers.

THE WORLD'S Average Circulation for March, 1894, 460,929

A sain 57,596 in one year A gain 148,359 per day in

PUT A BULLET IN HIS BRAIN. CONSTABLES FOR COXEYITES. BOY RUN OVER AT THE BRIDGE

Force of Seventy.

Was About to Join the Army. WILLIAMSPORT, Md., April 19.— Hagerstown will receive the Commonweal Army this evening. The town is alarmed after the way the Coxeyites showed their teeth at Hancock last ast Christmas, Hofmann had not been night, and seventy constables have been sworn in. The army came near taking in a desperate recruit last night at Han-cock. The man had been loafing for

ing. The laggards either followed the tow-path, or cut across the country to rejoin the army here.

Camp was pitched on the flats between the canal and the river at 9 o'clock this morning and breakfast was cooked. The march was taken up at noon, the army expecting to camp at Hagerstown to-night.

EXTENDING MAYORS' POWER.

sheffield Bill Passes the State As, sembly. (By Associated Press.) ALBANY, April 19.-The Assembly has passed the Sheffield bill, giving the coming Mayors of New York the power to remove and appoint heads of city departments.

STRUCK NATURAL GAS.

The Act Starts a Real-Estate Book In a Sencea County Hamlet.

FAYETTE, N. Y., April 18.—Whit drilling a well in the hamlet of Heary town last Tuesday, a strong flow of gawas struck at a depth of 250 feet. Ex citement among the villagers is running high, and land has advanced febulously n price. Village lots and dwellings are held as Village lots and dwellings are need a many times their value, and prospectors are trying with more or less success to organize companies to sink wells all over the adjacent property. Already the citizens are failing of incorporating the lamber.

LIVE WIRE KILLED FIREMAN.

Ex-Ball Player Tom Dolan Fatally Injured in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 19. One St. Louis fireman was killed yesterday, one fatally and another seriously injured. An overhead wire was melted by the heat of the flames at a fire and fell to the ground.

The firemen stepped on the wire and William Cannon was killed, and Tom Dolan, the old ball-player and former catcher of the St. Louis Browns, was fatally injured. Ben Shlveley was badly become.

Motor Car Victim in Troy.

(By Associated Press.)
TROY, N. Y., April 19.—Patrick Harrigan, aged two years, of Second street died yeaterlay from injuries received from being run over by a moter eds.

Leg Fractured by a Truck

Endeavoring to Escape from a Policeman.

over by a truck driven by Max Honecker this morning and had his left leg badly fractured. With a number of other newsboys he was plying his trade at the bridge entrance when an altercation arose. A bridge policeman drove the boys away, and young Diamond rushed into the State Council, G. A. R., Adopts the Motion at Albany.

ALBANY, April 19.-The State Depart ment, G. A. R., Council of Administraon has voted to reinstate Farunm Post, New York City, expelled last year for her II, and sister of the Csar), circulating a set of resolutions condemn-

Administration. The reinstatement to be affected re guires the sanction of the National Department.

TILLMAN IS BEATEN.

Supreme Court Declares His Dispensary Law Unconstitutional. (By Associated Press.)

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 19.-The Tillnan State Dispensary Liquor Law has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of South Carolina, two Justices concurring in and one, the Till- Russia, eldest son of the Cuar). These nanite member of the Supreme Bench, lissenting from the opinion.

ACCUSES A POLITICIAN.

Meyer Says He Gave William N Reid Money for a Job.

Justice Watson, in the Ewen Stree oart, Williamsburg, to-day, held Willum N. Roid, a well-known Greenpoint editician, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The complainant is Peter F. Meyer, The complainant is Peter F. Meyer, of 292 Leonard street, who says that some time ago Reid promised to get him a job on the Broadway cable road in this city if he were furnished with $25. Meyer says he handed over the $25, and afterwards was swindled out of $12.50 more, but the job was never secured.

weather forecast for the thirty-six hours a P. M. to-morrow is as follows: Clouds

THE ROYAL WEDDING.

Grand Duke of Hesse Marries the Princess Victoria, of Coburg.

BRILLIANT THRONG ATTENAS.

Nearly All Royal and Imperial Families of Europe Represented.

PRICELESS JEWELS AS GIFTS.

Queen Victoria's Crown -- Kaiser Wilhelm in the Procession.

COBURG, April 19.-This, the wedding day of the royal pair, the Grand Duke Louis of Hesse and Princess Victoria of Coburg and Edinburgh dawned with the sky somewhat over-cast. By 9 o'clock, however, the sky had cleared to a beautiful blue and the sun beamed gloriously upon the temporary headquarters of representa-tives of nearly all the imperial and royal families of Europe. The morning hours were the occasion for much dashing here and there of mounted orderlies and considerable driving about on the part of the wedding guests. The First Dragoon Regi-ment Band played a delightful musical programme in front of the Edinburgh Palace. Crowds soon packed the Palace Square, and all important persona were loudly cheered so soon as rec nized by the expectant multitudes. The Schloss Plats and the terraces overlooking the park were so thronged by

10 A. M. that the police were compelled to drive people away in order to revent dangerous crushes. According to the "ceremonial" decided ipon by Queen Victoria (all arrangements having been submitted to her at Florence), the marriage was fixed for noon precisely, in the private chapel of the Ducal Schloss, with full state, in were no bridesmalds; but the bride was supported by her younger sisters. The private chapel of the Schloss was thoroughly decorated for the occasion, and as the wedding took place on Prim-rose Day primroses entered largely into the interior decorations. The flowers were sent from England for the occa-

Queen Victoria was accompanied to the chapel by the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (the Duke of Edinburgh, father of the bride), and was escorted to an arm-chair in the front row next to Emperor William of Germany, by whose side was the Duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, only daughter of Czar Alexan-

There was some delay in the proces ings, and consequently it was 12:30 P. ing the pension policy of the Harrison before the ceremony commenced. In the wedding procession, Emperor William escorted the Duchess of Coburg, and ex-Empress Frederick fol-lowed alone. The Prince of Wales and the Czarewitch came next, walking to The bridegroom entered with his supporters, his uncle, Prince Henry of Hesse, and his brother-in-law, Prince

Henry of Prussia. The bride came in last, supported by her father and brother and accompa nied by her sisters. The Prince of Wales sat beside ex-Empress Frederick of Germany (eldest daughter of Queen Victoria); then came the Czarewitch (Grand Duke Nicholas of distinguished guests occupied front seats on the otherside of the alsie, corresponding with those of Queen Victoria, Em burg. The suites, court officials and Ministers in attendance remained standing through out the ceremony,

Among the distinguished personages present were the Duke and Du Connaught, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess Vladimir of Russia, Grand Duke Sergius of Russia and his wife, formerly the Princess Elizabeth of Hesse Darmstadt; the Princess Alix of Hesse, the Crown Prince and Princess of Roumania, the Hereditary Prince and Princess of Saxe-Meningen, Prince and Princess Philip of Coburg, Prince George of Greece, Prince Albert of Anhalt and Princes Henry and Louis of Battenberg.
Queen Victoria wore the broad, blue

The following record shows the changes is the temperature during the morning hours as ladicated by the thermometer at Perry's pharmacy:

2.A. M...518 A. M...518 A. M...5512 M...61